Jonathan Lines

Chairman of the Arizona Republican Party

Our first guest speaker for our March 13th meeting is Jonathan Lines, Chairman of the Arizona Republican Party. Jonathan Lines was raised in Yuma, Arizona where his family has been since the 1930's. The family originally settled in Pima, Safford and Thatcher, Arizona in the 1880s and were involved in ranching and mining. Jonathan is married to Rosalie from Provo, Utah. They have 11 children, 8 boys and 3 girls.

Jonathan's high moral standards, work ethic, commitment to excellence, and natural born leadership skills have been crucial to his success in family, business and community involvement. A strong defender of the U.S. Constitution, Jonathon enjoys time at the range and teaches gun safety, is an avid outdoorsman, supports his children in their activities, and has proven to be a fine and respected leader among Yuma County Republicans.

Jennifer Jones-Esposito

Arizona House of Representatives for District 5

Jennifer Jones-Esposito is a candidate for Arizona House of Representatives for District 5. Jennifer Jones-Esposito is not new to public service. She has a proven track record as an advocate for liberty, the Constitution, smaller government and lower taxes. Jennifer is running to protect your hard earned money, safeguard your rights, hold government accountable, defend Arizona from federal overreach, preserve our water supply, and grow the local economy.

Leo Biasiucci

Arizona House of Representatives for District 5

Leo Biasiucci is a candidate for Arizona House of Representatives for District 5. Leo was born and raised in Lake Havasu City, Arizona and has been an Arizona resident for over 30 years. After spending numerous days attending the 2017 legislative sessions in Phoenix, and speaking to many elected officials, Leo recognized the importance of having state legislators in office who will fight for rural Arizona. This is one of the many reasons why he is running for a seat in the Arizona House of Representatives for District 5.
